Volunteers Hold Session

During Fire Drill on regular schedule the Fire Department spent the first half of the time in drill session and viewing a training film made by the Los Angeles Fire Department on the various uses of breathing apparatus. After reviewing the film, the men, under the direction of Fire Chief Charles E. Brown, went to 110 Suffolk Avenue and experimented with the department's equipment.

At the business meeting, the two fires which occurred last Thursday came under discussion. The fires apparently were started by children playing with matches. Had these fires occurred during a windstorm or at the height of the fire season, the results could have been disastrous, not only to the watershed, but to the homes of the area.

Plans for the annual Fourth of July Picnic were discussed and plans formulated for the event.

Some of the men on the department are devoting Thursday nights to a series of lectures on fire fighting.

Honored At Reception

Some of the nation's top heroes assembled in Washington on May 2 when 240 Congressional Medal of Honor winners were feted at the White House.

A Sierra Madrene was honored in that group, Mr. Louis M. Van Iersel of 134 E. Montecito Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Iersel left Sierra Madre on May 1 and were flown to Washington in an United States Air Force plane, where they were met by a welcoming committee.

A lovely reception was held on the White House lawn and the President personally greeted and shook hands with the Congressional Medal of Honor winners, later at the reception the Pentagon officials were presented and the honored men and their wives had the opportunity of meeting several generals and admirals in the relaxed atmosphere of the lawn reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Iersel remained in Washington for three days before returning to their home.

Brothers In Office At Santa Clara

Ever hear of brothers holding office in the same government? Well, the practice has spread to the West. At the University of Santa Clara, the Burke boys from Sierra Madre have been elected to student government posts in the spring election.

Robert T. Burke, sophomore economics major, was elected recording secretary of the Associated Students. His brother, William F. Burke, a junior economics major, won the treasurer's post for the Class of 1964. Both terms are for the 1963-64 academic year.

They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Burke, 189 N. Canon. They both graduated from La Salle High School in Pasadena.

by Bill Wark

A forty year old Long Beach man was rescued from the Winter Creek Canyon Saturday night by members of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team and Los Angeles County Sheriffs.

Prescott Brown of 4530 E. 7th St., was hiking with his wife on the trail from Chantry Flats to Mt. Wilson when he became ill. He said he was taking pills for a heart condition, but he had taken many smaller hikes and thought he was able to make the trip. They had climbed as far as the Old Toll Road and were on their way back when he was stricken. His wife ran down the mountain to cabin 131 and called Bill Adams who called the Search and Rescue Team. The members of the team found him stumbling down the floor control road in upper Winter Creek Canyon. They picked him up and brought him safely to Chantry Flats.

The Sierra Madre Civic Club Relates History And Projects

Sierra Madre Civic Club was founded in June of 1944 with 15 members and Federated in November of that same year. One of the first projects of the club was the opening of a Toy Loan Library in Sierra Madre. The first center was in a store building on the south side of Sierra Madre Boulevard. In 1949 the present Toy Loan Story Book Cottage was built by the Civic Club and deeded to the city. Several hundred youngsters use these facilities every year.

Another project started by the Civic Club in its early days was the sponsoring of the March of Dimes Drive in Sierra Madre. This sponsorship is still maintained by the Civic Club and every year the general drive chairman and Mothers March chairmen are Civic Club members. Since sponsoring the March of Dimes two big donations have been made, one the donation of two mirrors for iron lungs and the installation of a "reader" for an iron lung at Rancho Los Amigos. These readers were invented by a local man.

For many years the club has sponsored two Marine Scout Troops and one Campfire group. It was instrumental in starting a club for teenagers, the Semanons and has chaperoned and provided refreshments for the annual Halloween Youth Dance.

Over the years the Civic Club has donated money to the Sister Kenny Foundation, City of Hope, CARE, Family Service, Red Cross, Sierra Madre Community Chest, Sierra Madre Cemetery Association, Sierra Madre Nursery School and the Friends of the Library.

In more recent years the club has been instrumental in raising money to help decorate the town for the Christmas season, plant the parkings along Sierra Madre Boulevard, sponsored a Little League team, furnished the Nursery at the Sierra Madre Hospital and helped to start the auxiliary at the hospital. The club has donated $1,000 to the Sierra Madre Library for the purchase of children's books, funds for the purchase of a set of encyclopedia for the library, bought ropes and donated $300 to the Search and Rescue Team, provided food to the Sierra Madre Float Association workers, painted and made drapes

TORPEDO FIRING—Speeds of 1000 feet per second or 682 miles per hour are reached as torpedoes are fired from the Variable Angle Launcher at the Morris Dam Test Range of the U.S. Naval Ordnance Test Station, Pasadena. Using compressed air for firing, the VAL is adjustable from 0 to 40 degrees for testing water entry of projectiles. Visitors at open house on May 18 will see hourly firing from this "largest air gun in the world."

Armed Forces Day Observance

Visitors Day On May 18 At Morris Dam Test Range

Security restrictions are being lifted on May 18 to permit visitors at the Morris Dam Test Range of the U.S. Naval Ordnance Test Station, Pasadena, in observance of Armed Forces Day. The Morris Dam Test Range is located in the San Gabriel Canyon, about five miles north of Azusa.

From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on that day, the general public is invited to view facilities used by the Navy in their research and development work on underwater ordnance.

Cameras will be permitted and visitors may photograph the firings, displays and demonstrations.

There will be hourly firings of torpedoes on the unique Variable Angle Launcher — the only facility of its kind in the country. On display will be full-scale weapons, one of which is ASROC — a significant advance in the Navy's anti-submarine warfare program. A one-fifth scale Polaris missile will be displayed as well as numerous other weapon exhibits.

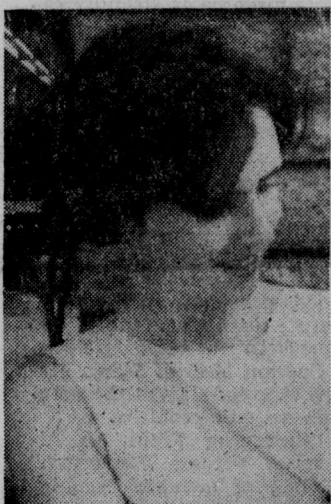

Navy divers will give demonstrations throughout the day. There will be boat rides on the lake in Navy launches during which visitors may view another Question: In your opinion, who would you suggest to raise and lower our flag in Kersting Court, so as to have it done properly?

Heather Davis
15 E. Mira Monte

"Youth organizations! They need this opportunity to learn the proper care of our flag and the ceremonies under which the flag is raised, lowered and cared for."

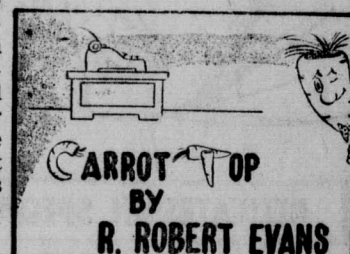

Glenn Bonney
528 Ramona Ave.

"Police Department would be best to handle this because they are located near the flag and some one is always there."

Lindsey Carse
200 S. Cahon Student

"I think that one designated organization that represents the city, such as the Police Department, should do this so it will be done consistently on time."

I am aware that my I.Q. may run slightly below average, at least that is what the employees around here keep telling me. But I know when I'm licked or can't win.

—CT—

Accordingly I will bore you with my annual tirade against the clock tinkers. As usual they were back on April 27 fooling with the time and the sad truth is, there is nothing that I, once the strong voice of the minority, can do about it.

—CT—

But, by golly, I resolved two weeks prior to this time, that this year when the clock tinkers tell me that, on the morning, 11 o'clock in the morning will be noon, I'll be ready for them.

—CT—

I've had unusual success in my program. Every day since Easter I have set my alarm clock to ring at 4 a.m. Instead of my usual hour of arising, 5 o'clock. I hop — or, almost hop out of bed and rush to the shower, shave and put a pot of coffee on the kitchen stove.

—CT—

For a few days at this point, I ran into a flat spot or two in my new schedule. I tried kicking our Siamese cat Bankock, out of his bed to keep me company. But he raised such an awful howl I was fearful he would arouse my household, if not the entire neighborhood, and I soon quit that. He would have nothing to do with time changing and he is positive about it, too.

—CT—

Then there was another problem but I whipped it. The newspaper boy doesn't arrive at such an ungodly hour and, consequently, I had nothing to read. I decided to read half of the paper when it arrived and save the other half for the early hours of the next day. It worked fine when I delayed reading the classified advertisements and the financial news for the day.

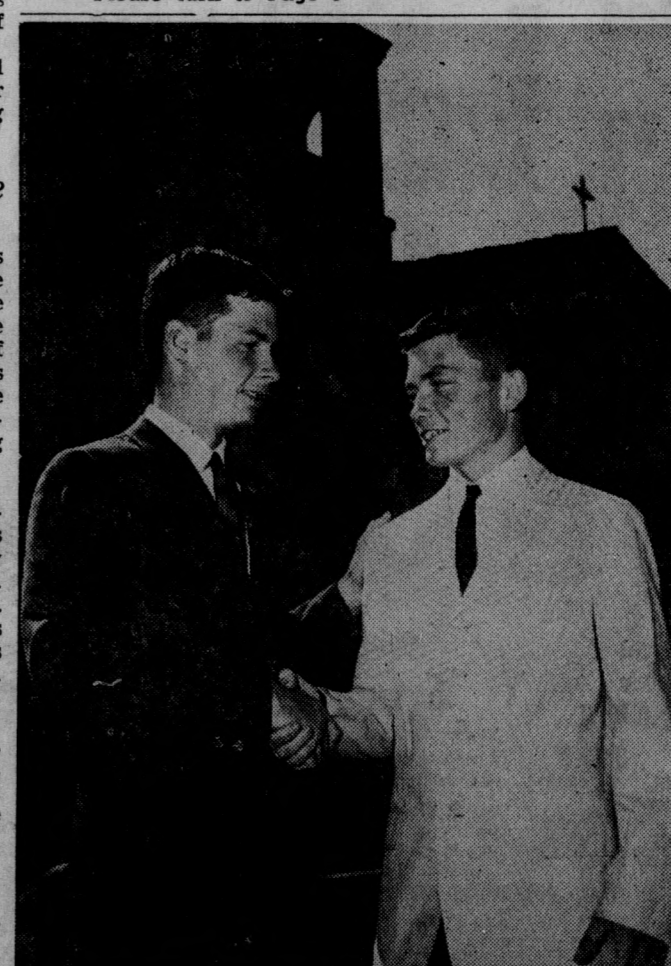

—CT—

There's nothing on the financial page for a man without stocks and bonds, like me, and I'm not looking or hunting for a job, the Lord knows I should be. Nor do I want to sell or buy anything. Of course, it's possible I'll miss a bargain before they change the time and I can go back to reading my entire paper at one sitting.

—CT—

It's a little rough, too, cooking your own breakfast and eating alone. But I am a man of strong principles. If we're going to fool around with the time — and we

Chang Reynolds At Don Benito

"Clowns and Elephants on an Artist's Brush" is the title of a talk by Chang Reynolds on circus lore to be given to the first, second and third graders on Saturday, May 18, at 10 a.m. in the auditorium of Don Benito School.

Mr. Reynolds, whose official title is supervisor of audio-visual service for the Pasadena schools, has been a circus buff for most of his life. Children will delight in the color and humor of Mr. Reynolds' water color sketches showing circus life under the big top.

The Community Resource Committee of the Don Benito PTA presents this program for the children's enjoyment. Mrs. Fredrick Sawyer is chairman.

Today let us consider the manifold advantages found in the "beauty parlor." We once made note of the fact that you might meet half your neighbors at the market. The other half you'll find at the local hair stylists! It is a delightful experience to combine the acquisition of beauty (?) and the unexpected pleasure of catching up on old friendships. Somewhere between the shampoo and the hair dryer, you may learn of weddings, births, graduations, ocean voyages, job promotions, and who's where on the hospital list. It's well worth the price of admission — even without the attempted glamorization. Just think, where else could you spend a couple of hours and have not only a better appearance to show for it, but a fabulous wealth of information to boot!!! Mercy!!!

Unusual Cake

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Wright gave a "Mickey Mouse" birthday party for their daughter, Brenda, who was five years old. Dolly vanity sets were given as favors for the little girls and bicycle accessories were presented to the boys. Various balloons were clustered around the room, and the centerpiece for the table was an unusual birthday cake in the shape of a teddy bear. Guests from this area were Jane Barnes, Stephanie Everett, Terry Heimbruch, Steven Hogle, and Kuipo Hollinger.

Guests Honored

The president of the Hastings Ranch Nursery School, Joan Linden, entertained with a party luncheon for the school alumni honoring the board of directors and the teaching staff. Alice Marsters was presented with a sterling silver piggy bank for her newly-adopted baby boy.

The guests attending the affair were Vi Carmichael, director; Helen Hull, Sylvia Murug, Ruth Shochat, Jeanne Steffens, Barbara Victor, Dorcas Brolin, Margaret Hope, Michele Iwig, Elaine Nairn, Phyllis Foster, Yvette Gould, Mollie Woodworth, Dolores Prescott, Beverly Batterson, and Alice Marsters.

Hall and Farewell

The home of Mrs. Clifford Cummings was the scene of a dual-purpose luncheon. Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Tom Walsh invited friends and neighbors to meet new Ranchers Mrs. James Morlan and Mrs. Ross Rhoades. The other honoree was Mrs. John Becker, who has moved to Chapman Woods.

Others enjoying this event were Mrs. William Dunn, Mrs. David Bierhorst, Mrs. Joseph Padlipsky, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. Thomas Sheppard, Mrs. Eric Ward, Mrs. Kenneth Boyce, Mrs. John O'Donnell, Mrs. Ben Wade, Mrs. Stephen Musto, and Mrs. Charles Trent.

Las Comperas Election

Members of Las Comperas, luncheon group of Upper Hastings Ranch, held their annual business meeting at the El Dorado. Election of officers took place with the following results: president, Jeanne Paxson; first vice president (programs), Emily Morzov (well known local writer?); second vice president (social), Helen Fay; secretary, Marty Newton, and treasurer, Ethel Mayhew. Formal installation will take place at the June meeting.

Unique Presents Given

Much hilarity and intense concentration was enjoyed by birthday lads Herb Lacey and Ron Toms at the Mixers' Saturday night dance. The hilarity was brought about by the group's surprise birthday serenade and the concentration was the result of the gifts which they received. Have you ever seen a "Psycho-stick"? Nuff said!

Les Trente Amies

"Springtime" was the theme for the annual dinner dance of Les Trente Amies, which took place at the La Canada Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mayhew entertained at their home with a pre-party cocktail hour. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. William J. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Luff, Mr. and Mrs. Don Raible, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Hege, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Kenmouth.

How long has it been since you've stopped to take a good look at the surrounding scenery? The valley at night is bejeweled with multi-colored lights and stars twinkling overhead. Spring has nodded our way and touched the hills with moonlight. We tend to take our view for granted, but day or night, with few exceptions, we are surrounded by the beauty of Southern California. So take a minute, friends and look around — it's well worth the time!

are — it doesn't make any difference to me when we begin.

—CT—
Peggy looked a little puzzled when I woke her up every morning to tell her goodbye and hurried off to work an hour before anybody else in the neighborhood. At the office, I was the only fellow around for an hour. When the rest of the crew showed up I was well along with my stint. I didn't mind the smart cracks, like "you couldn't sleep, huh?" or "are you practicing for a job as a milk wagon driver?"

—CT—
Promptly at 11 a.m. (that will be noon now, you know). I left the office for lunch. I had to wait half an hour at the restaurant until they began serving lunch, but I didn't mind. And by 12 (sun time) I was back in the office, just as the others were going to lunch.

At 4 o'clock I left the office. On several occasions I caught the rest of the crew looking my way. But I walked right out. I was on my own schedule — an hour ahead of everybody else. It was my business, when I began and when I quit.

—CT—
At home I explained that I had decided to eat my dinner earlier in the evening in the interest of sleeping more soundly. Peggy said she, somehow, had to eat at the same hour everybody else did, but reluctantly agreed to fix my dinner at 5 o'clock when I insisted I was hungry. It's a long time from 11:30 to 5 o'clock.

—CT—
I was able to maintain my self-imposed schedule of saving daylight (that's what the clock tinkers say the new times does for us all). But I nearly slipped in the evenings. I didn't hear more than six innings of the baseball game broadcast and I turned the television drama off while the bad men were still in charge of things. I left parties before the hostess served her dinner, offering an excuse of dyspepsia as an excuse to get home and get to bed an hour earlier. Then I've lain awake at nights, unable to sleep.

—CT—
But my reward was gratifying. Come Sunday, April 27 and I got even with the clock tinkers. They were all out of sorts for a week or so, trying to become accustomed to daylight savings time, getting up an hour earlier and eating an hour earlier. But to me 11 a.m. is mid-day. Did the clock tinkers think they would whip me? Not by a long shot.

Now to end this weeks innocent nonsense I leave you with this thought . . . The man who can smile when things go wrong has probably just thought of somebody he can blame it on too . . . see you around I hope, I hope, I hope.

Letters to the Editor

I may not believe in what the man says, but I will defend to my death his right to say it. —(similar words of Voltaire) removal of your office from Sierra Madre — a growing city now in excess of 10,000 population — would be denying this community a vital public service to which it is entitled. We do feel that the users of gas in Sierra Madre are indeed entitled to the convenience and accommodation afforded them by you through your maintaining an office in this city where bills may be paid direct to you and your service can be properly applied for or ordered discontinued.

For the foregoing reasons the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce is strongly opposed to your proposed removal of your office from our city.

Respectfully yours,
John H. Curtis,

Dear Editor:
An alley in our neighborhood presents safety problems as, presumably, do others in our city.

Section 5243 of Sierra Madre city code gives the solution to one problem. "Emerging From An Alley or Private Driveway." "Driver of a vehicle emerging from an alley, driveway or building shall stop such vehicle immediately prior to driving onto a sidewalk or into the sidewalk area extending across an alleyway."

This section of the code is not generally understood. —JESSIE E. DUNNING

The PLAZA Shop Talk

By Sewall Clark

HAVE YOU ever tried to get a simple job done? I mean, something like getting a small sign painted for the Plaza Shop.

If you do it yourself you have to buy the tools and you'd probably butch it anyhow. So you remember someone who once said he was eager for that kind of work.

BUT WHEN you call the guy it turns out he really can't get around to it. He knows someone named George who might, so let George do it.

Okay? Sure. That's fine. Real great. Wonderful! Thanks very much!

EXCEPT for one thing. George has either gone fishing or his wife has just divorced him for non-support so he's busy getting plastered, gassed, or just plain drunk.

Make mine a mint julep and let me sip it slowly while I try to think of how to get a small sign painted. PARDON me! I forgot. Yes, it takes time to make a mint julep. Loving care. It's a lost art.

Besides, you've got to have the mint. I know. The tools. The same as the manufacturer who has to have the right tools to build beautiful dresses of the kind Trudie sells at the Plaza Shop.

AT LEAST we have the flowers planted. The ground around the Plaza Shop needs to be replaced by new earth. That's right; the proper tools again. So Bob Osti did it, in spite of being one of the busiest men in town with his landscape nursery.

It's only the busy man who can get that "extra" job done. Why is that?

Historical Society Features Mt. Lowe Railway

The Mt. Lowe Incline Railway in all its significance will be pictured at the annual dinner of the Sierra Madre Historical Society, Monday, May 27. The incline railway was a popular transportation system to Mt. Lowe from 1893 to 1938. To those who rode the incline in those days and to those who hike it today, the story will be very appealing.

Activities at Alpine Tavern, a popular and commodious hostelry, will be shown by slides. Famous folk who rode the incline and the surrounding vicinity will be shown. The pictures have been collected from many sources over the years and arranged by Miss Margaret Macpherson. Miss Macpherson's father, Mr. David Macpherson, was the chief engineer on this project. She will tell of the difficulties of construction, of Professor Lowe who financed the incline, and of many celebrities who were passengers. Find yourself in the pictures.

The 6:30 dinner will be at the Woman's Club, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. Anyone interested is invited to the dinner and the program. Reservations can be made before Friday, May 24, by phoning EL 5-9588 or EL 5-9891.

It tickled me to death the other day as I was talking to a friend and she said: "I am just going to have to quit watching all of these medical programs and find something I can laugh about again." I tell you, it is possible, if you are diligent about it, to watch 14 different medical programs per week. And more, if there happens to be a special on. This covers everything from the function of the hospital to a little arm-chair psychiatry. It all takes place in one-half to one hour with liberal time off for commercials. Instant medicine. It makes you kind of impatient with the real thing when you see mortally wounded patients walking off the screen cured in 30 minutes.

It used to be they spoke of the father image—now it's the doctor image, and I ask you, just how many doctors smile like Kildare or look through you like Casey, or have that patience and kindness of Dr. Bassett? It is just apt to shake up the whole medical world and all of the former cowboys will end up on Dr. Bassett's couch with traumas because they've been rejected. Ooops, excuse me please, it's time to take my temperature and pulse!

Mrs. Skipper Rostker has been playing the role of a fairy godmother these last two weeks by entertaining for some of our local hill-ites.

On May 2 she had a luncheon and stork shower for Mrs. Robert (Marylyn) Brydolf, who is expecting her baby sometime this summer. Marilyn's 7-year-old daughter, Barbara, was in on the fun (home from school with a cold), in addition to Mrs. E. D. Sawyer, Marilyn's mother, who was visiting from Saugus, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Elton Sawyer of Sepulveda, and her other sister-in-law, Mrs. Lawrence Gray of Pasadena. In addition, there were Mrs. H. A. Switzer, Mrs. Charles Beyer, Mrs. Irving Chen, Mrs. Alsen Acker, Mrs. Sidney Parker, Mrs. Keim Zebb, Mrs. Sam I. Joseph, Mrs. Ed Shuman, Mrs. Arthur R. Laufer, Mrs. Charles Griffin and Mrs. Ralph Schioming.

Last Saturday, Mrs. Rostker gave a dual bridal shower and luncheon to honor Miss Anita Barkelew, who will be married to Mr. Paul Thomson of Arcadia on June 15. The second honoree was Miss Ann Fricke, who will be marrying Mr. Harry Scholtz some time in August.

With the exception of the girls' relatives, most of the guests had at one time or another had these girls as baby sitters for their children, so they had a special interest in their welfare.

Those invited for the party were Mrs. Gwen Berkelew, Mrs. Mary Berkelew and Mrs. W. Glynn Jones, all relatives of Anita, and Mrs. John Fricke and Mrs. Robert Wilfong, mother and grandmother of Ann. The other guests were Mrs. Art Brearley, Mrs. R. E. Lockard, Mrs. Charles Goldsworthy, Mrs. Aikman Armstrong, Mrs. Harold Berg, Mrs. George Wenger, Mrs. Floyd Stoller, Mrs. John Kariotis, Mrs. George Amthor, Mrs. Philip Sauerman, Mrs. William Cunningham, Mrs. Don Breshears, Mrs. David Philip, Mrs. Alden Acker and Mrs. Walter Dorn.

Anita returned from college for the party and brought her roommate, Mrs. Sandra Benson, along as well.

I was so glad to hear that the 50-foot sloop "Turmaline" owned by Dr. and Mrs. Jack Paschall Jr. came in second in class "B" on the recent Ensenada race. Matter of fact, it missed the first place by 28 seconds! It was crewed this time by Jack and Lucille (Lucille in the galley), Mr. George Holmes, Mr. Joe Phelps, Mr. Jim Speer, Mr. Bill McFadden, Mr. Dick Remy, Mr. Barry Mason and Mr. "Chap-ey" Chapman, the builder of the ship. Louise Phelps and Jane Holmes drove down to Ensenada to meet the crew coming in. They boarded and came back via San Diego and Avalon, making a five-day additional cruise out of it, with beautiful weather all of the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Abbott A. Waldron and Mrs. Minnie B. Blaine went up to Santa Cruz last weekend to witness the wedding of their son (and grandson to Mrs. Blaine), Bruce A. Waldron. He was married in the Baptist Church there to Florence Lee of Santa Cruz. They will be living, after a brief honeymoon, at Sanger, Calif., where Bruce is stationed with the U.S. Forest Service.

Dear Editor:

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Sielen of 325 Toyon Road wish to express their humble appreciation to the 19 donors who have requested that their blood donation be credited to Martin Sielen during the Red Cross drive last Monday.

Other donors wanted to give but were rejected for one reason or another.

Mr. and Mrs. Sielen also wish to express their appreciation to the Sierra Madre PTA and the Congregational Church for offering blood from their blood banks. And to the help of the Sierra Madre News, without whose help this appeal would not have been so heartily answered.

Martin Sielen will undergo open heart surgery on June 20 at the Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasadena.

Pupils Honor Miss Gutierrez

Thirty-nine little girls of the seventh grade, pupils of Miss Gloria Aurora Gutierrez, teacher at the School of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, honored her at a miscellaneous kitchen shower at the home of one of her seventh graders, Trudy Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phillips at 2601 Morsley Road, Altadena, Saturday evening, April 27.

Miss Gutierrez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Arturo Gutierrez of 3265 Fairpoint, Sierra Madre Villa, will be married to John Francis Delaney of Inglewood in July. She will leave her teaching post after the spring semester. She and her future husband will be moving to Texas after their marriage.

Senior co-hostesses were Mrs. H. E. Harmon of Pasadena and Mrs. Paul Phillips, where the shower was held.

During the evening a beautifully decorated basket containing plastic flowers was given to the bride-elect. Each little pupil of Miss Gutierrez picked out a flower and presented it to her beloved teacher expressing their individual feelings for her and what their association with her had meant to them, with her warmth and understanding of the children.

One mother of the group also expressed their gratitude for Miss Gutierrez' fine teachings and this is when the lovely Gloria broke down and said, "Please give me a handkerchief." With all the handsome gifts she received, she had nearly enough to completely furnish her kitchen.

Now that daylight savings is here these classes will fill rapidly and it would be well for dog owners interested in training their pet to call and make a reservation, as the classes are limited. Any dog five months or older may be enrolled.

Two new classes will start in Arcadia County Park, one on Saturday, May 18, at 1 p.m. This will be the last Saturday afternoon class until next winter, and one on Monday evening, May 20, at 8 p.m. The class in Alhambra Park, Alhambra, will start Thursday evening, May 16, at 8 p.m.

For further information please call HI 6-6858 or EL 9-1481.

Correct!

Here lately I've been getting up an hour earlier so as I could save an hour of daylight in the evening time. But don't know if I'm actually saving an hour's daylight or not — cause I'm so cussed sleepy in the morning that I go to bed an hour or two earlier in the evening to sorta catch up on my rest ... makes a fellow kinda suspicious that he's losing daylight instead of saving it.

Organ Dedication Concert Planned For Faith Church's New Sanctuary

In observance of Rogation Sunday at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive, the Rev. Armin Hesse will speak in the 10:30 worship service on the theme, "The Way to Prayer," basing his pulpit message on the first verse of the day's Gospel lesson.

The Sunday school department, meeting at 9:15, will consider the Biblical accounts of "The Ascension of Jesus."

At 3:30 on Sunday afternoon, the Organ Dedication Concert will be conducted in the congregation's new church sanctuary. Guest organist Charles H. Clarke will be at the console of the recently installed seven-rank, two manual Wicks pipe organ.

Mr. Clarke holds a bachelor of music degree from Northwestern University, did graduate work at Pius X School of Liturgical Music in New York, and spent a year at the Walcker Organ Firm in Ludwigsburg, Germany, where he studied organ design. He has played numerous recitals in this country and in Europe.

Also participating in the dedication concert will be the Southern California Lutheran Laymen's League Chorus, directed by Ray Linton; the Junior and Senior choirs of the congregation, directed by Edgar Pliska. Organist Kenneth Euklen will play the new instrument for the singing of three familiar congregational hymns.

The public is invited to the afternoon musical. The free will offering will be directed to the Southern California District Mission Building and Loan Fund of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, for the establishment of new churches.

Isaiah emphasizes that God's Word will not return empty when received with open hearts, and God's word must always take precedence over man's word.

Bethany Church Notes

Pastor Robert Schaper of Bethany Church of Sierra Madre will continue his series of messages on the book of Ephesians speaking from the second chapter during the morning worship service at 11 a.m. This is the third in a series of messages on this book from the Holy Word. He will also speak during the evening service at 7.

National Family Week at the church concluded last week with an open house in the Sunday school and a stirring message by Dr. Schaper on "The Christian Home."

General Superintendent, John Kershaw, announces that the Bi-Monthly Worker's Conference will be held on Thursday evening, May 23, with a discussion by the adult leaders on "Electives" and the other departments receiving information on a new "education evaluation" system being headed up by Stan Schilberg and Harold Ankeny, minister of education.

Mr. Schilberg recently accepted a position in the Sunday school as superintendent of evaluation.

The church is located at the corner of Montecito and Baldwin in Sierra Madre. It has a fully staffed nursery for all services capable of taking care of 40-50 children. In addition to the nursery there is "extended session" for all boys and girls up through the third grade so that their parents can attend the services of worship.

An outstanding musical program is presented at each service and always there is the message from the Word of God presented by Pastor Schaper. You are cordially invited to attend the church.

Bandstand Shell Purchased, Delivery June form a "cash contract" with the city for the construction of same, estimated to be $2 a front foot, the council authorized the city administrator to contact the balance of the property owners in an attempt to secure a 100 per cent petition for a "Cash Contract."

If 100 per cent petition was not secured, the city did not feel that they wished to construct curbs and gutters for some property and let others stand, and would then have to enter into the short form of the 1911 act, causing an improvement district, based on the percentage of the signers, do the work and add the extra expense to all property owners. A complete signing would eliminate this extra expense.

William Boden was given the bid to take care of the city's weed abatement program for the year at an hourly rate of $8 per hour which includes insurance.

The City Administrator was authorized to call for bids for Liability Insurance on four limitation basis and to secure prices of a five year plan over a three year plan with the thought in mind of any savings that may be made. Authorization was also given to advertise for bids for the resurfacing and reconstruction of Sierra Madre Blvd. from Auburn to Michillinda and changes in drainage at various points.

A transfer of $8,000 to the "fire engine fund" was authorized, this was a budgeted item and places the fund in the position required to date.

Resignation-Retirement
The resignation of Hal Hall, construction inspector was received, and comment given on his "goodwill achievement" while in this position. A request for retirement was also received from Deputy City Clerk Beatrice Thompson for August 1, 1963, this was accepted with regret, and thanks and comments given by the Mayor and Council.

Band Shell Purchase
Authorization was given the Parks and Recreation Commission to purchase a fiberglass band stand shell at a cost of $3800. The purchase to be made at this time for delivery sometime during the month of June. Although the funds are not available at this time, the expenditure must be budgeted for the 63-64 tax rolls and paid for from this budget. The council noted that in this approval, they did not necessarily state that the budget for this commission would be approved in its entirety, that other items may have to be cut to bring the budget as a whole within their program.

Resolutions Adopted
Resolutions were adopted accepting the Master Plan and approving of the Nuetzel variance and denying the Fratt variance, all items had prior hearings.

The discussion of pending legislation, the receiving of letters and minutes of various commissions and committees were noted, received and ordered filed for future reference. As no other business was apparent the motion was made for adjournment until the regular meeting of May 28.

Crowning

and seventh grade girls accompanied on the organ by Sister Rosemary. The remainder of the school children marched around the church singing hymns in honor of Mary.

After the crowning of the statue of the Blessed Mother, the ceremony concluded with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The proceedings were under the direction of Mother M. Hermosa, Principal of St. Rita's School.

Guided tours may be made of the Propulsion Pits where new systems are tried out, and movies will be shown throughout the day on research and development projects.

Parking facilities are located approximately one-fourth mile from the entrance to the Morris Dam Test Range. Personnel will be on hand to direct traffic and assist motorists in locating parking spaces. Due to the distance between the parking area and the entrance, the Navy will operate continuous bus service between these points.

Children must be accompanied by adults. Women are advised to wear low heel shoes.

Eleanor Davidson Engagement

Mr. Howell N. White Jr., of 266 Everitt St., New Haven, Conn., formerly of Sierra Madre, has announced the engagement of his daughter Eleanor Davidson to Lt. Peter Granville Knight of Westport, Conn.

Miss White's maternal grandparents were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Mercer of Summit, New Jersey. Her paternal grandparents were Mr. and Mrs. Howell N. White of the Hotchkiss School, Lakeville, Conn. She attended the Ascension Parish school in Sierra Madre, and Anokla; a graduate of the MacDuffie School in Springfield, Mass. She will receive her B.A. degree from Elmira College in June. Lt. Knight is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Knight of Westport, and Dr. Granville Knight of Santa Barbara, Calif. He is a graduate of Trinity College, class of '61, where he was a member of Phi Kappa Psi social fraternity. A pilot in the Strategic Air Command, he is presently stationed at Barksdale Air Force Base in Shreveport, La.

A fall wedding is planned.

Dr. James Fredrick Wharton, M.D., age 81, passed away Sunday, May 12, at St. Luke Hospital, Pasadena, following a lengthy illness. He was originally from Chicago, Ill., and had lived in Sierra Madre at 59 Esperanza, Apt. A, for eight months. He had been a physician and surgeon in Chicago for 54 years.

He was a veteran of World War I, having served two years in France as an Army surgeon. He had received certificates of appreciation from both Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy for work with the Selective Service Organization.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Emil J. Skarda of Sierra Madre; a granddaughter, Mrs. Martin C. Tippen of Hollywood; two grandsons, Robert F. Skarda of Chicago, Illinois, and Richard A. Skarda of Sierra Madre, and three great-grandsons.

Ripple Mortuary conducted the services on Tuesday, May 14, at 2 p.m., with Rev. Ray Hansen officiating. Final rites and interment will take place in Chicago.

'That Big Fish Never Shrinks'

Herbert Hoover has written one of the most delightful books of the year, just published by Random House. Its title describes its substance — "Fishing For Fun And To Wash Your Soul."

Mr. Hoover has always been an enthusiastic fisherman, and an expert one. Most of the other Presidents of the modern age have fished also — but not nearly so expertly or enthusiastically. And he takes the philosophical view of this ancient and diverse art. For instance: "Lots of people committed crimes during the year who would not have done so if they had been fishing. The increase of crime is among those deprived of the regenerations that impregnate the mind and character of fishermen." And again: "... fishing reduces the ego in Presidents and former Presidents, for at fishing most men are not equal to boys." And still again: "There are two things I can say for sure: two months after you return from a fishing expedition you will begin again to think of the snowcap on the distant mountain peak, the glint of sunshine on the water, the excitement of the dark blue seas, and the glories of the forest. And then you buy more tackle and more clothes for next year. There is no cure for these infections."

"And that big fish never shrinks."

It's a grand, nostalgic little book that reminds one of the urge to cast a fly come spring. Happy fishing to all the addicts!

Disproving Socialized Need

Mention a billion-dollar project of just about any nature, and nine people out of ten will automatically think the government is the backer. That's one of the results of long years of super-costly government in virtually every sphere of human activity.

To show the fallacy of such reasoning, it is pleasant to report that a short time ago one of this country's leading electric utilities asked the Public Service Commission of New York for permission to issue additional common stock. The purpose of the stock issue is the matter of interest. During the 1963-67 period this company plans to spend $1.3 billion on new facilities. Some $800 million of this is to be financed by the sale of securities. The balance — a handsome half-billion — will come out of earnings.

In that five-year span, this utility expects to complete the world's largest pumped-storage hydroelectric generating unit, and build an extensive underground extra-high-voltage transmission system in New York City. All of it is to come from private savings, private investment, and private earnings in an enterprise whose rates and profits are strictly controlled by public authority.

This expansion project will serve a region of intense industrial, business and population concentration. But precisely the same thing is going on in every section of the nation — where heavily-taxed private power companies are permitted to proceed. The argument that only government has the will and the capability to undertake huge power projects is totally without foundation.

Duty, Obligation, Destiny

Now, once again, as in generations past, the nation's school graduating classes will perform their traditional roles, from the grades to the great universities.

The Valedictorians will say their eager, nervous words. The guest speakers will offer their counsel. Pomp and Circumstance will surround the ceremonies.

The young people will walk off into a world they did not make, but which, perhaps, they can help remake in a brighter image. It is a world of intense competition, profound danger, and vast opportunity.

This is true of the arts, the sciences, the social services, all the civilizing elements of which we now have some knowledge. But then, poised against this, are powers of darkness and destruction deeper and more subtle than the world has ever known before?

May this year's graduates of the schools and colleges, wherever in the world they may be, go hence with a sense of duty, obligation, and destiny.

Business Service Stations

Most of us find it pretty tough to dig up enough dollars to pay our bills and taxes, but at least we are dealing with just one kind of money. Its been a depreciating kind these past 20 years and is not likely to improve by the looks of the projected federal budget and deficits. It may be a comfort to realize that things were worse in the old days when Americans had about ten thousand different kinds of paper money of varying and usually uncertain value. It's hard to believe that such a condition actually existed prior to February 25, 1963, when Abraham Lincoln signed the National Currency Act establishing our first sound and uniform currency and setting up the basis for our present commercial banking system.

This legislation provided for a network of national banks to operate side by side with the state chartered institutions and so established the basic financial framework which helped implement the imagination of Americans who developed the resources and built the industries that turned a continental wilderness into the world's greatest land of plenty. Additions have been made to this framework through the years, as for example, central regulation of the supply of money and credit established by the Federal Reserve Act of 1913. Banking today is as different from a hundred years ago as is everything else.

Commercial banks are service stations to lubricate the workings of business and industry. They are in the best tradition of American private enterprise and can help the individual with a good idea turn a dream into a productive reality.

Freedom At Any Price

by Henry V. Witty

Irving Potash is the American Party's labor chief. He directs Communist infiltration into United States industry. This Soviet controlled "weirdie" has taken full advantage of our laws.

Within the past month and a half, according to Victor Riesel, Potash "has been to Detroit and Chicago. He is eager to develop action cells in the auto, steel and rail unions — disciplined cadres which would respond instantaneously to Communist direction."

"Yet Irving Potash is in this nation illegally. His is a story of international intrigue — as documented as it is melodramatic."

Riesel pinpoints the deportation of Potash as March 4, 1955.

He spent the next two years being briefed by his superiors behind the iron curtain and then returned illegally to the United States where he was picked up on January 4, 1957. "He was sentenced to two years in the Atlanta Penitentiary and fined $1,000," reports columnist Riesel.

He was released from confinement on August 26, 1958, and from that date has merely been required to report to the New York Immigration and Naturalization Service four times a year.

Irving Potash will undoubtedly be ordered to register with the government as a member of the Communist Party, but will be free for a long time to come to cripple American labor with his Soviet controlled Communism.

According to a recent poll, U.C.L.A. students voted 2,210 to 946 in favor of removing a 12 year ban on Communist speakers.

The University of California at Berkeley exceeded the fondest expectation of Gus Hall and his Red Cut-throats. U.C. students voted 2,947 to 847 to allow Khrushchev's hatchet men to speak on campus. Why not allow narcotic "pushers" equal time on the campuses of our State Universities to extol the benefits of marijuana and heroin?

Three colors predominate in our national emblem, but few of us know anything definite about their use or their meaning. A little research might prove quite enlightening.

Henry Ward Beecher had this to say about "Old Glory" — "Our flag carries American ideas, American History, and American philosophy. It is not a painted rag. It is the whole national history. It is the Constitution. It is the government. It is the free people that stand in the government on the Constitution. Forget not Honest News!

Seems that real honest news on government happenings is a lot harder to come by today than it was when the poy express was in operation. The general public is as much in the dark on what's going on as they are on what it cost to get workers for the house that Jack built (in Virginia). Ethical and unethical news hawks are as frustrated as a new bride without a car opener. ... I guess the question of the day for the bulk of us for some time to come will be—to be, or not to be. —FARMER McCABE. (all rights reserved)

Casa Colina Needs Envelope Addressers

Persons interested in addressing envelopes at home for Casa Colina's Christmas campaign are asked to call Mary Lou Ginther, LYcom 3-1336. Three hundred fifty thousand envelopes must be addressed by August.

"Since Casa Colina is not tax-supported, nor receives money from any fund-raising group, it necessarily must depend on contributions from this mailing to enable patients to receive care and treatment regardless of ability to pay," she continued.

Letters To The News Editor ...

Dear Editor:

Please ask Mr. Larry Lomax to move over on the bench; I'd like to join him. Only criticism of his letter to the Editor I'd have was his suggestion about the book you should re-read. I'd suggest "Elementary Psychology."

When you came to town and published your first few issues, I said, "Hurrah! The new Editor is giving the Advertisers a fair shake — reading matter alongside each ad!" You did it. Yes, you did. And but now, what reading matter! Do you realize that 227 1/2 column inches in last week's paper consisted of incredibly dull commercial publicity releases or filler material? (This does not include press releases from local and semi-local people groups like Auxiliaries and Guilds and so on.) You had 42 1/2 inches of Carrot Top and editorial rebuttal and 31 inches of Editorial (this, too, smacked of filler; or do you write your own editorials?); 34 inches of Cobwebs (easy to snip out of the morgue); and 10 1/2 inches of "PTA from 1915 to 1921" — but not one line of PTA 1963 — from Sierra Madre, Don Benito and Fields schools; Wilton and Marshall Junior High; Pasadena High School (or even the Arcadia schools, tho your banner lists a considerable area the S.M. News covers).

Any writer knows it's easier to tap out pipe dreams on a typewriter than to get out, hit the beats, nuzzle, and dig up news stories — or must all of your news be "supplied" as by Bill Wark and many, many others? It sure reads like it. There were at least six potentially good news stories hidden in that "Your City and Mine" column (who, by the way, writes that one for you? Shouldn't he have a by-line? And is the Plaza a for-free column, or an advertisement, or filler?)

Your advertising manager, on the other hand, is doing a fantastic job; good for him. Only, it's kind of sad to see our once beloved Sierra Madre newspaper skidding to the level of a Shopping News. Only the Editor and Publisher can do anything about that.

Incidentally, I have sent a carbon of this letter to Mr. Lomax and have read it to several friends. The consensus is that it will never see the ink of your press. And I'm certainly not going to buy the space with a 15 cent cup of coffee from the Headliner (adv.) or anywhere else.

—HELEN V. PRESTON

Editor's Note: Seems as though we have a frustrated female on our hands, who by her own admission has taken herself off the field of play and progressiveness and wishes to sit on the bench. From her own letter she has indicated she did not like the activity of the former editor, certainly she does not like this one, and I doubt if she would like the next one. Not being a subscriber to the local hometown newspaper, and certainly not a supporter she seems to have lethal use for a weapon known as the "yardstick."

She has defined 311 1/2 inches of news that was undesirable to her, the paper carried 3024 inches of which 2100 inches was advertising, much interesting to our readers, leaving 824 inches for news. We can understand why she does not necessarily care about "cobwebs" or "PTA 1915-1921" having been a short time resident of our community, but let me tell you hundreds of "old time residents" do appreciate and enjoy these inches of "lacking filler," and pay their hard earned money to receive them.

Each and every item published in the paper is of prime interest to "someone," someone has taken his or her time to see to it that it reaches us, I wonder how many times she has exerted herself in this category.

I can imagine that her husband can tell her many stories about "hard to please" women, and although he feels that he has done an excellent job in the art of selling and servicing carpeting, only to find out that had it been done by an expert, it still would have been wrong.

I can imagine that Mr. Lomax got quite a kick out of her letter, his red face, and comments of citizens of Sierra Madre would indicate that he would be happy to get them off his back and on to others. The letter would indicate that she must have missed her "calling." I certainly would get great pleasure out of sitting on the "bench" and watching her edit and publish the Sierra Madre News, pay the help and keep even 10 percent of the 28,000 readers happy all the time.

Of course she did not attack the releases of the semi-local groups like Auxiliaries and Guilds, she knew this would certainly "cook her goose," seems to me that she is the type that wants "blood and thunder," but since she is not a subscriber, it is senseless to narrate the desires of those that are... keep the bench warm Helen, I understand that you are a "Conservative" and we may need you again some day, and in the meantime please remember you cannot kick a guy in the rear unless he is up in front.

Thanks for the dime which entitles you to read this epiphany. Hope you did not waste a dime last week... Your article was a little late.

Dear Editor:

In your neighboring community of Monrovia you have just witnessed a perfect example of a newspaper presenting only one side of a story. Citizens of Sierra Madre, you should be proud of your own paper dedicated to true Americanism and the philosophy of Voltaire, "I disapprove of what you say but I will defend to the death your right to say it." Suppressed news, whether it be local or national, leads to an uninformed electorate. This, in turn, allows a minority to rule. A brain-washed populace spells slavery whether it be a tax override election or a national crisis. A free press that presents both sides of an issue in a fair way is necessary to the preservation of freedom. When parents and taxpayers are unable to communicate with each other, due to a controlled press, a control of the many by the few may result. This has happened in Monrovia.

Dear Editor:

Public reaction to the Alweg Monorail has been studied at the Seattle World's Fair by the University of Washington. "Monorail riders were greatly impressed by its speed, smoothness and quiet operation."

But what speed? At 53 miles per hour, modern trains — including freights — are considerably faster. In Japan, normal operations will average over 100 miles per hour.

But what smoothness? The researchers found a modern railroad coach to be over twice as smooth. But what quiet? All other modern conveyances were found to be quieter. Hotel and apartment operators along the route, and an adjacent office study, found the noise of speeding monorails bothersome. Other proprietors expected no great things to come. Landlords strongly felt that the elevated monorail would prevent great things from coming.

All the Seattle commuters wanted was rapid transit that would provide them with reasonable speed at reasonable cost. It was the supposed speed of the monorail that impressed the riders most — not its modern design nor its novelty.

Monorail — however low cost an elevated nucleus for Los Angeles rapid transit it theoretically might provide — cannot build the most for the least for the wider megalopolis. In addition to operating problems, it costs more, so fewer lines can be built from the farebox.

But MTA's plans do not utilize the opportunities of 2-man trains sharing existing railroad facilities where practical. Thus the MTA plan, for a brand new automatic railway system, is also unnecessarily costly.

It can be shown that the most-for-the-least solution must commence with the sharing of transit and railway facilities on the surface Pacific Electric line between Los Angeles and Long Beach. The new Greyhound Terminal for MTA buses would raise the Pacific Electric Long Beach viaduct tracks at 6th and Main this October, making a low-cost Southland evolutionary rapid transit system forever impossible.
